

Corporate Law Teachers Association 2011 Conference Program

Sunday 6th February

2:00pm - 4:00pm	Teaching Issues in Corporate Law	Craig Cameron & Catherine Brown	B Block, Level 5, Room 507
6:00pm - 7:30pm	Welcome Reception		The Ship Inn

Monday 7th February

8:00am	Registration Opens		S Block, Level 4 Foyer
9:00am	Official Opening & Welcome	Michael Lavarch	S Block, Level 4, Room 403
9:15am	Keynote Presentation	Robert Austin
10:15am	Morning Tea		S Block, Level 4, Room 409
10:45am	Keynote Presentation	Bob Baxt	S Block, Level 4, Room 403
11:45am	Panel - Current Areas of Research Focus	Professor Ian Ramsay, Professor Jennifer Hill & Emeritus Professor John Farrar
1:15pm	Lunch		S Block, Level 4, Room 409

Breakout Session 1	Group 1 - S404	Group 2 - S405	Group 3 - S407
2:00pm	On the recurring circularity of corporate law and regulation: how proposed changes to corporate law and regulation take us back to where we started.	Three years on and what have we learned so far? Voluntary Administrations in New Zealand.	Building Trust in the Corporate World- Wither Corporate Law after the Financial Crisis?
Presenter	Neil Andrews, Victoria Law School	Trish Keeper, Victoria University of Wellington	Roman Tomasic & Folarin Akinbami, Durham University
2:30pm	The Evolution of Shareholder and Creditor Protection in Australia: An International Comparison.	Pre-packaged Insolvencies.	Legal Pandemonium in Corporate Governance of Islamic Financial Institutions in Malaysia
Presenter	Helen Anderson, University of Melbourne, Michelle Welsh, Monash University, Professor Ian Ramsay, University of Melbourne, & Peter Gahan, Monash University	Mark Wellard, Queensland Univeristy of Technology	Rusni Hassan & Aishath Muneeza, International Islamic University Malaysia
3:00pm	To What Extent is Corporate Social Responsibility a Legal Concept?	Companies incorporated by guarantee and their governance issues with respect to educational institutions	Whistleblower Protection for better Governance of Companies
Presenter	Paula Darvas, Monash University	Maria Nicolae, Bond University	Shanthi Segarajasingham, University of Colombo

3:30pm	Afternoon Tea		S Block, Level 4, Room 409
---------------	----------------------	--	----------------------------

Breakout Session 2	Group 1 - S404	Group 2 - S405	Group 3 - S407
4:00pm	The adoption of single enterprise principles for corporate groups: A safeguard for voluntary unsecured creditors?	The Responsibility of Shareholders.	Why private interest theory should be used to evaluate the adequacy of the auditor independence requirements in CLERP 9
Presenter	Jenny Dickfos, Griffith University	Stephen Bottomley, Australian National University	Kelvin Kuan, Queensland Univeristy of Technology
4:30pm	Cutting the Gordian Knot of Corporate Law: Revisiting veil piercing in corporate groups.	Is Corporate Governance the answer to corporate structural failure?	Mandatory Auditor Rotation: Australian Evidence.
Presenter	Jason Harris University of Technology, Sydney & Anil Hargovan University of New South Wales	Indrajit Dube, Indian Institute of Technology Kharagpur	Larelle Chapple, Australian National University & Sarowar Hossain, University of New South Wales

7pm - 11pm	Conference Dinner		The Groove Train
-------------------	--------------------------	--	------------------

Corporate Law Teachers Association 2011 Conference Program

Tuesday 8th February

9:30am	Panel - Future Directions Corporate Insolvency Law	Michael Dwyer, Michael Murray & Richard Cowen	S Block, Level 4, Room 403
11:00am	Morning Tea		S Block, Level 4, Room 409
Breakout Session 3	Group 1 - S404	Group 2 - S405	Group 3 - S407
11:30am	The Algorithmic Hare and the Legal Tortoise: High Frequency Share Trading and the Challenge for Regulators.	Enforcing Liquidator Obligations: Unnatural Predators.	The use of privileged, confidential and inadmissible information by regulators and law enforcement agencies with civil, administrative and criminal powers.
Presenter	Eugene Clark, Griffith University	Sulette Lombard, Jeff Fitzpatrick & Vivienne Brand, Flinders University	Michael Duffy, Monash University
12:00pm	Nibbling at the Edges or Fiddling while Rome Burns? The Past, Present and Future Regulation of Insider Trading	The Australian insolvent trading prohibition: is there a need for reform in the twilight zone?	Phoenix Activity and the Recovery Of Unpaid Employee Entitlements –Ten Years On.
Presenter	Juliette Overland, University of Sydney	David Morrison, The University of Queensland & Colin Anderson, Queensland Univeristy of Technology	Helen Anderson, University of Melbourne
12:30pm	ASIC's Forward Agenda- Does this include Continuous Disclosure?	'Goldminers' wanted: meeting the need for better data on corporate insolvency.	What is wrong with recent ASIC litigation: an analysis of approach
Presenter	Josephine Coffey, University of Sydney	Christopher Symes & David Brown, University of Adelaide	Joe Crowley, Bond University
1:00pm	Lunch		S Block, Level 4, Room 409
1:30pm	CLTA - AGM		S Block, Level 4, Room 403
Breakout Session 4	Group 1 - S404	Group 2 - S405	Group 3 - S407
2:00pm	Putting the cart before the horse: The James Hardie appeal and liability of company secretaries and general counsel	The impact of taxation law on priorities in insolvency law: Is pari passu the solution or the problem?	Fraud on the Corporation: a power to be reckoned with
Presenter	Jason Harris, Univeristy of Technology, Sydney	Catherine Brown, Queensland Univeristy of Technology	John Orr, Southern Cross University
2:30pm	The Company Chair: From a Seat at the Table to the Hot Seat?	The Solvency Regime – A Critical Element of the Legal Framework	The application of the Statutory Derivative Action in Part 2F.1A of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) to Companies in External Administration: Well oiled machine or is Part 2F.1A in need of a tune up?
Presenter	Suzanne Le Mire, University of Adelaide	Indira Nanayakkarra, University of Colombo	Geoffrey Egert, Colin Anderson and Scott Kiel-Chisholm, Queensland University of Technology
3:00pm	End of Conference		